Two Workshops: Saturday, March 13, 2010

2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Recent Findings in Biblical Theology on Mary

7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

The Multicultural Faces of Mary

In the first workshop, Fr. Francois will focus on recent studies of Mary in Scripture which have increased our understanding of the figure and role of Our Lady in the history of salvation.

The evening workshop, illustrated by artifacts in the Marian Library collection, will present the many ways Mary is perceived and portrayed in the different cultures around the world. It will also explore what this means about the Mother of Jesus.

Take advantage of this visit by an expert on Mariology to deepen your understanding of our patroness,
Mary, Mother of God.

Mark your calendar today and plan to participate,
learn, and share in this event.
